Our Annual Staff

We, the Annual Staff, have finally reached our goal of completing the 66-67 yearbook. It was completed through the persistent efforts of the entire annual staff. We thank our advisor, Miss Thacker, for the assistance she has given us. We thank businesses that bought ads, our teachers who put up with our picture-taking days, and Mr. Hinton who has given us his complete cooperation and understanding.

The open doors on the first page represent the store of knowledge that is open to anyone eager enough to take it. There will be many times in our lives, when opportunities for the advancement of our knowledge will be there for the taking. It will be up to us to decide. We, the Seniors, have walked through these open doors for twelve years. Soon, these doors will be closed to us; but new doors to the future will open and offer us promises of greater value.

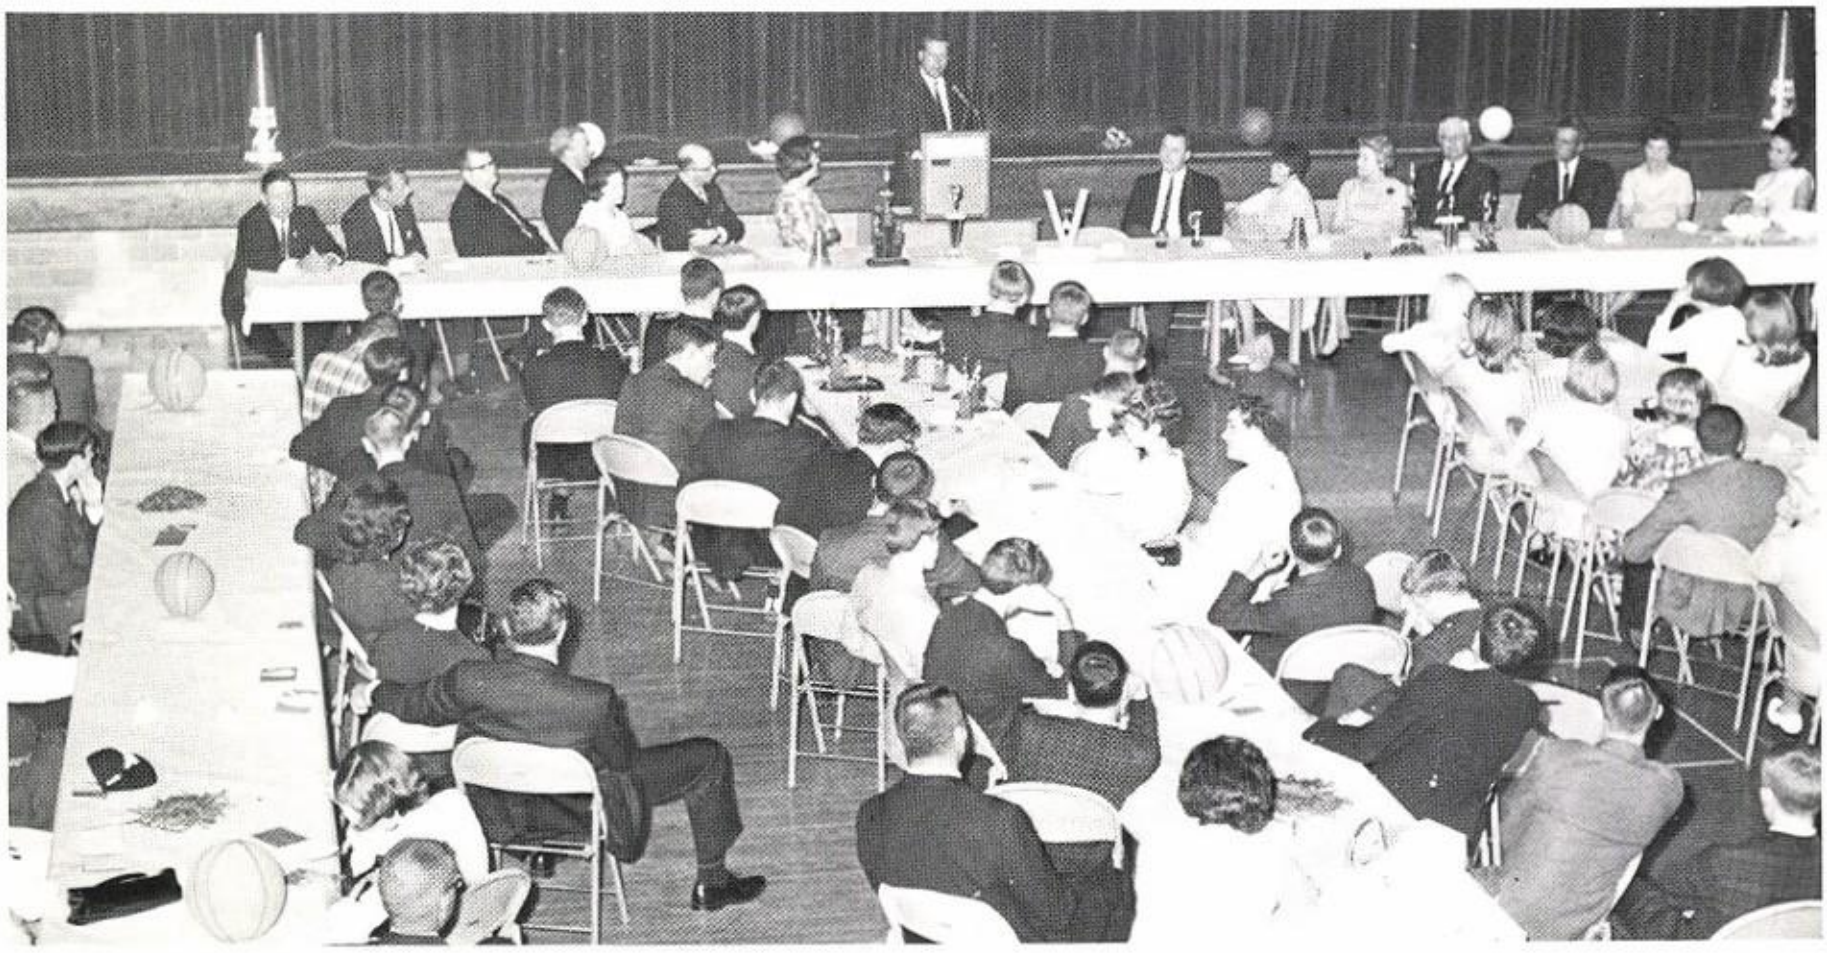
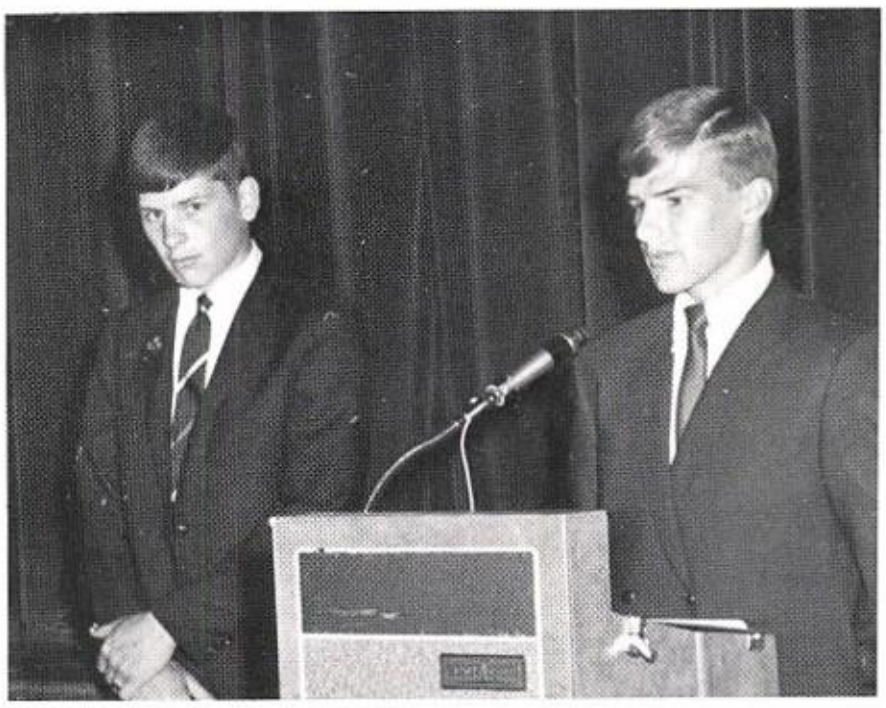
Our Athletic Banquet



The 1966-67 Zane Trace Athletic Banquet was held on Friday, May 5, in the school auditorium. Curt Tong, basketball coach at Otterbein College, was the guest speaker. Mr. Damron, our principal, served as toastmaster for the program. He introduced the various coaches who presented awards to the deserving team members.

Coach Robert Sigler awards Steve Wunch the Alonzo Stagg Award. Each year this award is presented to an outstanding girl and boy. Sandy Wilson and Steve Wunch received it this year for their achievements in sports.



Varsity basketball co-captains, Bob Maxwell and Greg Ebert, thank everyone who supported the team and helped to make the 66-67 season a success.

RIGHT: Grant McDonald presents plaques to Bob Maxwell for All County and Greg Ebert and Barry Bennett for Honorable Mention.

Earlier he presented Robert Sigler with a plaque for being Ross County's Dean of Coaches, and for his outstanding coaching record.

Congratulations to these five trophy winners: John Ralston, Sandy Wilson, Bob Maxwell, Greg Ebert, and Steve Wunsch. A fine group of athletes that Zane Trace can be proud of!

Varsity Cheerleader, Debbie Kellough, presents a gift of appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Petty. Mrs. Wolfe, girl's volleyball coach, shows her approval.
